Usman Subhani (POI # 865)

Each morning, Usman starts his day the same way: a quick sugar check, his insulin, and then he's off to school. In his free time, he loves playing football with the boys in his neighborhood, and thanks to Meethi Zindagi's diabetes educators, he has learned how to manage his sugar levels confidently. Your kindness is helping Usman grow up healthy, active and full of possibilities.

Mahir Khokar (POI # 824)

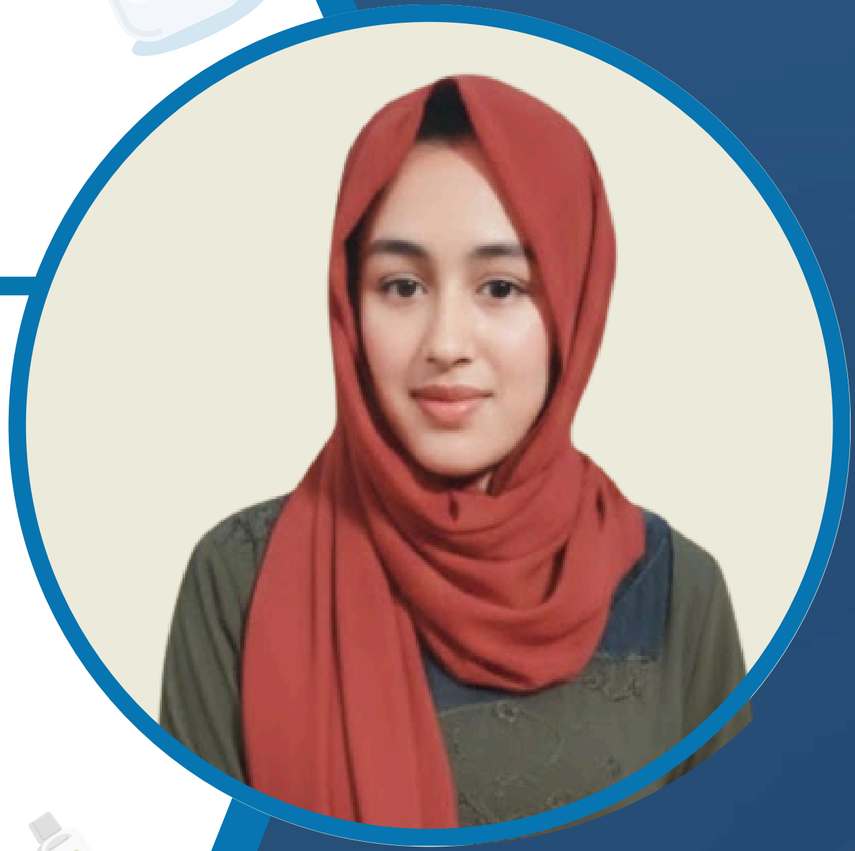

At just 5 years old, little Mahir Khokar is too young to understand why he needs insulin, but his parents carefully check his sugar and give him his injections every day so he can laugh, play, and grow like any other child. in a different way. Because of you, Mahir's parents can breathe easier, knowing his insulin will be there tomorrow and the day after.
